TOM & SHELLY BALDRIDGE

APPELLANTS

v.

ORDER NO. K-19163

CAMPBELL COUNTY PROPERTY VALUATION ADMINISTRATOR

APPELLEE

* * * * *

The Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals has delegated authority to a hearing officer pursuant to KRS 13B.030. The hearing officer entered a recommended order in compliance with the provisions of KRS 13B.110. No exceptions or objections to the recommended order were filed. The Board has reviewed the record and the recommended order. The recommended order states:

FINDINGS OF FACT, CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND RECOMMENDED ORDER

The Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals has delegated authority to Attorney Elizabeth Graham Weber to act as a hearing officer pursuant to KRS 13B.030. The hearing officer has considered the evidence submitted by the parties at the hearing, and makes the following findings of fact, conclusions of law and recommended order.

ORDER NO. K-19163

FINDINGS OF FACT

This is an appeal of the 2003 property tax assessment for property owned by Tom and Shelly Baldridge and located at 86 Winters Lane, Cold Spring, Kentucky. The Baldridges filed a timely appeal with the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals from the Campbell County Board of Assessment Appeals decision, which Board affirmed the $123,671.00 assessment of the Campbell County Property Valuation Administrator. The Baldridges contend the property is worth $117,000.00. Wendy Yelton, Deputy PVA, testified on behalf of the Campbell County PVA and in support of the $117,000.00 valuation.

Based upon the foregoing, the hearing officer finds the fair cash value of the property as of January 1, 2003, to be $117,000.00.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. The Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals is vested with exclusive jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from final rulings, orders and determinations of the Campbell County Board of Assessment Appeals pursuant to KRS 131.340(1).

2. The function of the Board is not simply to review the action of the Campbell County Board of Assessment Appeals, but to try anew the issues as presented. Jefferson County Property Valuation Administrator v. Oxford Properties, Ky. App., 726 S.W.2d 317, 319 (1987). See KRS 131.340(1).

3. As the party proposing the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals set aside the decision of the Campbell County Board of Assessment appeals, the Baldridges bear the burden of proving a lower value. KRS 13B.090(7).

ORDER NO. K-19163

4. Section 172 of the Kentucky Constitution mandates that all property "shall be assessed for taxation at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale."

5. The choice of the most appropriate and reliable approach to valuation is within the prerogative of the Board. Jefferson County Property Valuation Administrator, supra at p. 319.

6. Regardless of the manner or method used by the Property Valuation Administrator or the decision of the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, the finding of valuation must be at its fair cash value, estimated at the price it would bring at a fair voluntary sale. Helman v. Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, Ky.App., 554 S.W.2d 889 (1977).

7. The hearing officer finds that the Baldridges have met their burden of proof and finds the fair cash value of the property as of January 1, 2003, to be $117,000.00.

RECOMMENDED ORDER

The hearing officer recommends the fair cash value of the property as of January 1, 2003, to be set at $117,000.00.

This is a recommended order, and each party shall have fifteen (15) days from the date this recommended order is mailed to file exceptions to the recommendations of the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals. This recommended order has been sent by first class mail on the date below to the last known address of the parties. Failure to file the recommended order may preclude further judicial review.

ORDER NO. K-19163

ORDER

The Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals has considered the record, and accepts the recommended order of the hearing officer, and adopts it as the Board's final order. Failure to file exceptions to an administrative hearing officer's recommendations after a hearing constitutes a failure to exhaust administrative remedies and precludes appellate review. Swatzell v. Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet, Ky App 962 SW 2d 866 (1998). The following information is provided pursuant to the final order requirements of KRS Chapter 13B:

This is a final and appealable order which may be appealed to the Circuit Court of the county in which the appeal originated by filing a petition of appeal in the appropriate Circuit Court within thirty (30) days after this final order is mailed or delivered by personal service, pursuant to KRS 13B.140(1) and KRS 131.370(1). Copies of the petition of appeal shall be served by the Petitioner upon the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals and all parties of record. The petition of appeal shall include the names and addresses of all parties to the proceedings and the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals, and a statement of the grounds on which the review is requested. The petition of appeal shall be accompanied by a copy of this final order. Within twenty (20) days after service of the petition of appeal, or within further time allowed by the Circuit Court, the Kentucky Board of Tax Appeals shall transmit to the reviewing court the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceeding under review in compliance with KRS 13B.140(3).
